L'Art de la Renaissance-Victoria Charles 2014-05-10 La période de la Renaissance débute en Italie à la fin du XIVe siècle et s'étend sur tout le continent européen jusqu'à la seconde moitié du XVIe siècle. La redécouverte des splendeurs de la Grèce et de la Rome antique marque les débuts d'une « renaissance » des arts, en rupture avec les dogmes du Moyen Âge. Nombre d'artistes vont innover aussi bien dans les domaines de la peinture, que dans ceux de la sculpture et de l'architecture. Le réel et l'idéal, le profane et le sacré, le mouvement et la perspective constitueront les thèmes de référence, qui influenceront l'art européen pour les quatre siècles à venir. Léonard de Vinci, Michel-Ange, Botticelli, Fra Angelico, Giorgione, Mantegna, Raphaël, Dürer et Bruegel sont au nombre de ces artistes qui apporteront une contribution décisive à l'art de la Renaissance. This is Not Just a Painting-Bernard Lahire 2019-04-15 In 2008, the Musée des Beaux-Arts de Lyon acquired a painting called The Flight into Egypt which was attributed to the French artist Nicolas Poussin. Thought to have been painted in 1657, the painting had gone missing for more than three centuries. Several versions were rediscovered in the 1980s and one was passed from hand to hand, from a family who had no idea of its value to gallery owners and eventually to the museum. A painting that had been sold as a decorative object in 1986 for around 12,000 euros was acquired two decades later by the Musée des Beaux-Arts de Lyon for 17 million euros. What does this remarkable story tell us about the nature of art and the way that it is valued? How is it that what seemed to be just an ordinary canvas could be transformed into a masterpiece, that a decorative object could become a national treasure? This is a story permeated by social magic the social alchemy that transforms lead into gold, the ordinary into the extraordinary, the profane into the sacred. Focusing on this extraordinary case, Bernard Lahire lays bare the beliefs and social processes that underpin the creation of a masterpiece. Like a detective piecing together the clues in an unsolved mystery he carefully reconstructs the steps that led from the same material object being treated as a copy of insignificant value to being endowed with the status of a highly-prized painting commanding a record-breaking price. He thereby shows that a painting is never just a painting, and is always more than a piece of stretched canvass to which brush strokes of paint have been applied: this object, and the value we attach to it, is also the product of a complex array of social processes - with its distinctive institutions and experts - that lies behind it. And through the history of this painting, Lahire uncovers some of the fundamental structures of our social world. For the social magic that can transform a painting from a simple copy into a masterpiece is similar to the social magic that is present throughout our societies, in economics and politics as much as art and religion, a magic that results from the spell cast by power on those who tacitly recognize its authority. By following the trail of a single work of art, Lahire interrogates the foundations on which our perceptions of value and our belief in institutions rest and exposes the forms of domination which lie hidden behind our admiration of works of art.

Histoire de l'art pendant la renaissance: Italie; la fin de la renaissance-Eugène Müntz 1895

La civilisation de la Renaissance en Italie-Jacob Burckhardt 2017-06-22 Synthèse foisonnante, qui fit date, La civilisation de la Renaissance en Italie fixa pour plus d'un siècle la thèse d'une transition des temps obscurs du Moyen Age aux lumières de l'humanisme, amorcée dans les Etats de la péninsule. Moraliste dans ses portraits de princes et de papes, commentateur des textes de Dante et de Pétrarque, historien de l'art et du corps lorsqu'il aborde la mode féminine, Burckhardt a érigé en objets d'histoire des éléments culturels et psychologiques ignorés de ses contemporains. Son ouvrage demeure un classique indispensable pour comprendre la formation des périodes historiques.

Social History of Art, Volume 2-Arnold Hauser 2005-07-15 First published in 1951 Arnold Hauser's commanding work presents an account of the development and meaning of art from its origins in the Stone Age through to the Film Age. Exploring the interaction between art and society, Hauser effectively details social and historical movements and sketches the frameworks in which visual art is produced. This new edition provides an excellent introduction to the work of Arnold Hauser. In his general introduction to The Social History of Art, Jonathan Harris assesses the importance of the work for contemporary art history and visual culture. In addition, an introduction to each volume provides a synopsis of Hauser's narrative and serves as a critical guide to the text, identifying major themes, trends and arguments.

L'Italie de la Renaissance-Christian Bec 1990
Ouvrage d'initiation, mais aussi de référence écrit par des spécialistes confirmés, ce livre invite le lecteur à pénétrer dans quatre domaines clefs de la Renaissance italienne : la politique, les lettres, les arts et la société. Il ne néglige ni les aspects dominants de cette époque ni les aperçus particuliers de la foisonnante réalité de la péninsule italienne au XVe siècle. Le pays qui revit sous nos yeux est formé d'unités politiques, nettement caractérisées et indépendantes les unes des autres, chacune conduisant de façon différente sa propre destinée mais à l'intérieur d'un système à la logique contraignante. Les dynamismes et la puissance économique projetés par les espaces méditerranéens et européens donnent naissance à de puissants foyers culturels et artistiques. L'Italie du XVe siècle préfigure et amorce une phase nouvelle de la civilisation européenne. L'évolution d'un microcosme riche de traditions et d'innovations surgies parmi de rudes affrontements mène à l'avènement de nouveaux principes, à la suprématie artistique de Florence et au triomphe des philosophes et des poètes.
