Re-Reading Zola and Worldwide Naturalism-
Carolyn Snipes-Hoyt
2013-07-26 Re-Reading Zola and Worldwide Naturalism continues the discussion of Émile Zola and French naturalism with examinations of unexplored areas of the founding father's project and legacy. In addition to offering essays on Zola's lesser known naturalist contemporaries, the volume extends the investigation of the naturalist literary current to include areas of Europe outside France, as well as the Americas and Asia, tracking its persistence in various forms through the twentieth century and into the twenty-first. The authors pay particular attention to the ways naturalism was conceived and then received, including in other channels, undergoing transformations in new social conditions and creating other versions of the basic precepts. This work features multidisciplinary and comparative approaches to the study of naturalism, paying tribute to Anna Gural-Migdal—a Professor of French Literature and Film Studies at the University of Alberta, in Canada, who specializes in the visual aspect of Zola's Rougon Macquart novels and the transfer of these strategies to naturalist film. She has been a leader in the field of Zola and naturalism in her role as president of the AIZEN for almost fifteen of its twenty years of existence. "Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956-971" - Rosemary O'Neill 2017-07-05 The Riviera in the 1950s and 1960s was culturally rich with modernist icons such as Matisse and Picasso in residence, but also a burgeoning tourist culture, that established the C?d'Azur as a center of indigenous artists associated with Nouveau R?isme, Fluxus, and Supports/Surfaces, emerged under the mantle of the "Ecole de Nice." Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications generated during the period from museum archives, collections in the region, and privately owned archives, this study integrates material published in monographic studies of individuals and art movements, to offer the first in-depth study of this important movement in twentieth-century art. The author situates the work of the Ecole de Nice within the broader social currents that are so important in contextualizing this phenomenon within this internal region of France, and underscores why this work was so significant at this historical moment within the context of the broader European art scene, and contemporary American art, with which it shared affinities.

Despite their stylistic differences, and associations with groups that are generally considered distinct, O'Neill discloses that these artists shared conceptual affinities?theatrical modes of presentation based on appropriation, use of the ready-made, and a determination to counter style-driven painting associated with the postwar Ecole de Paris. Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera, 1956-1971 suggests that the emergence of an Ecole de Nice internally eroded the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this moment of French decentralization efforts, and that these artists fostered a model of aesthetic pluralism that remained locally distinct yet fully engaged with international vanguard trends of the 1960s.

Peinture et société à Naples- Gérard Labrot 2010 Grâce à un impressionnant travail de dépouillement systématique de 1100 inventaires après décès, de nombreux contrats et de multiples paiements de tableaux, Gérard Labrot étudie les relations complexes entre la peinture et la société napolitaine. Il analyse les marchés anciens, napolitains en particulier, dont on peut reconstituer les mécanismes financiers et admirer la vigueur dans la conquête d'une clientèle toujours plus variée. Les acteurs, commanditaires, collectionneurs et peintres, sont mis en scène dans les divers secteurs du marché de l'art : le neuf, l'occasion, le religieux, le profane, les pièces de haute qualité et les croûtes. Deux questions fondamentales sont posées : quelles sont les fonctions évolutives remplies par la peinture sous l'Ancien Régime ? et quelle place, matérielle et économique, est la sienne dans la gamme fort étendue des dépenses somptuaires de la grande capitale européenne qu'est Naples ?
